

REEL international SAS completed on April 1st, 2021 the acquisition of Metso Outotec's aluminium business

REEL reinforces its position as a leading technology provider in the global aluminium industry.

With the acquisition of Metso Outotec's aluminium business, REEL international adds to its offering green anode plant, anode rodshop and casting equipment along with related services, in addition to the four businesses already active in the aluminium industry: NKM Noell Special Cranes, REEL Alesa, REEL COH and REEL Möller.

Together Towards Performance

REEL is an industrial group specializing in complex handling and lifting systems and integrated systems solutions. REEL, with more than 2300 employees, is established on four continents and has experienced an average annual growth of 10% over the last twelve years.

380 m€ revenue
2300 employees
Presence on 4 continents

Press Contact

Sandrine Weisse

Corporate Communication
sweisse@reel.fr
www.reelinternational.com